ATTEMPTED BURGLARY.—On Friday night about nine o'clock a man went to the back door of a house situated on Seventh street and knocked at the door. An old lady who resides in the house went to the door, thinking that it was one of the servants, and asked who was there. The reply was, "Open the door and you will see." The son of the old lady, who overheard the remark, went on the front door around into the back yard with a poker in his hand. It found the man in one of the outhouses, and immediately struck him on the head with the poker, inflicting a very painful wound. The thief pleaded so hard that he was allowed to depart.

AS THE passenger train from Franklin came into the depot last night, one of the cars, from which some had crept over to one side, struck the frame-work to which the door is fastened, and so jarred it as to throw down a portion of the end wall. The bricks came down in a shower, and but one person, as far as we could learn, was injured—that was Dan Sullivan, an old brakeman on the road, but to what extent we did not learn—dangerously, we trust.

ROBBERY.—About 11 o'clock Sunday night the room of Mrs. Johnson, who boards at the corner of Sixth and Grayson streets, was entered and robbed of $44 by our Henry Harris, who was boarding at the same house. After committing this robbery, Harris went to Brown's Hotel, on Jefferson street, where he stole a shawl. He was arrested by Officers Giffy and Ewing, who lodged him in jail. He will have a hearing before Judge Johnston this morning.

ARRESTED.—In the Democrat of Sunday we gave the particulars of a murderous assault upon Louis Cox with the intention of robbery, and the arrest of one of the party. Yesterday officers Lamborn and Antle arrested another of the party, who gave his name as Wm. Stewart. He will have an examination before Judge Johnston this morning.

OUR clever friend John H. Griffith, of the firm of Griffith & Board, started yesterday evening for New Orleans for the purpose of making extensive purchases of sugar, molasses, and the products of Dixie generally. He is an enterprising member of an enterprising firm, and will do nobt do his best to keep the city in sweetening.

Our readers should consult him without delay, as he is without doubt the only person entitled to the application of the only genuine hair restorer. He is at the National Hotel. Consultation free.

THE greater portion of yesterday in the Court of Inquiry was occupied in hearing the testimony of Gen. Jeff C. Davis. The testimony of two other witnesses was heard. The court meets again this morning.

YESTERDAY Marcus Conn and L. Levy were arrested for selling citizens' clothing to soldiers. They were released, the former was given $10,000 bonds, and the latter $5,000 bonds.

WE call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Wood & Spitzer. We are well acquainted with these young men, and know they will exert themselves to please all comers.

AN interesting meeting is now in progress on Grayson street, between Eleventh and Twelfth, conducted by Rev. D. P. Heuderson and G. G. Mollens. Meeting to-night at 7 o'clock.

THE St. Louis Republican gives an interesting report of a recent exploration of a wonderful cavern, called Fisher's Cave, on the southwest branch of the Pacific railroad. The author of the report says that the cave is more marvelous than the Mammoth Cave of Kentucky, being richer in the fantastic decorations that decorate its walls and ceiling, and more thickly studded with grotesque stalactites, stalagmites, and similar formations. This remarkable cave may yet become a favorite summer resort.

GENERAL Butler proposes to establish a common school system at Norfolk and Fort Monroe, modelled upon that of Massachusetts. This will insure the education of hundreds of colored children. It is a sad fact that of nearly three thousand five hundred colored soldiers in camp on the eastern shore of Maryland, not one can either read or write.

THE Washington correspondent of the Worcester Transcript, who has examined the Internal Revenue returns, says that tobacco pays a tax of $2,500,000, leather comes next, paying $1,900,000; then iron, $1,700,000; and then melt liquors, $1,500,000.
